RE: SEVENTH AMENDED Emergency Court Procedures
(COVID-19)

REF: Z-2021-029
(Rescinds Z-2021-024 & Z-2021-028)

WHEREAS, the Florida Supreme Court has issued a recent Administrative Order (AOSC21-17) in which courts are permitted to transition to operation where in-person contact is more broadly authorized, and

WHEREAS, the Seventh Judicial Circuit Court seeks to gradually increase levels of functionality, and

WHEREAS, the health and well-being of the public, litigants, attorneys, court staff, and judges continue to be of paramount concern;

NOW THEREFORE, I, RAUL A. ZAMBRANO, Chief Judge of the Seventh Judicial Circuit of Florida, hereby ORDER as follows effective June 21, 2021:

This administrative order is to be read in conjunction with the aforementioned Supreme Court order.

1. Court facility occupants are to continue to monitor their health conditions and may voluntarily choose to wear face masks throughout court facilities.
2. All court facilities in the Seventh Judicial Circuit are open to the media and general public for observance of court proceedings not otherwise deemed closed or confidential.
3. Court facility visitors are encouraged to continue to monitor their health conditions and may voluntarily choose to wear face masks throughout court facilities. Upon request, the Court will provide face masks to anyone attending an in-person court proceeding.
4. Although social distancing requirements are now relaxed, judges and other court facility occupants are to take appropriate measures to ensure that occupancy levels of courtrooms and hearing rooms are not excessive during in-person court proceedings, including, but not limited to, instituting staggered appearance times.
5. Court proceedings described below must be conducted in-person:
 - a) Jury trials, grand jury proceedings, and associated jury selections;
 - b) Criminal non-jury trials;
